

I'M CHARGED!

I'm Charged! educators are leading the Meriden Public Schools' digital transformation. They are the pioneers, the early adapters, the innovators and the student-centered ambassadors. Take charge of your learning and become an I'm Charged! educator.

PLUGGED IN

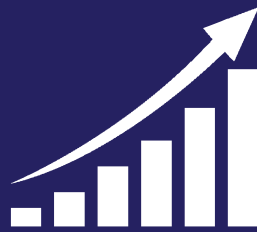

Engaging in ongoing professional development and lifelong learning

Effectively utilizing multiple grouping strategies

Leveraging technology to communicate with students and parents

CHARGING

Contributing to the MPS learning community by sharing best practices with colleagues

Using classroom space creatively to create engaging learning environments

Assessing student progress using digital tools for timely feedback and to inform instruction

Effectively integrating digital content in the classroom

FULLY CHARGED

Providing opportunities for students to deepen their understanding outside of the classroom

Allowing students to demonstrate mastery in multiple ways

Using technology to provide meaningful learning experiences

Creating digital content